CORE social housing lettings and sales log review 2021/22 invitation for Proposals – deadline 16 October 2020

The Ministry for Housing, Communities and Local Government (MHCLG) collects information on new social housing lettings and sales from Local Authorities (LAs) and Private Registered Providers (PRPs) through the COntinuous REcording (CORE) system. PRPs and LAs provide data on social rent, affordable rent, and rent to buy lettings. In addition PRPs also provide data on their social housing sales. The data are collected through questionnaires called CORE logs which we review annually.

MHCLG is reviewing requirements for what data should be collected from 1 April 2021 for the 2021/22 reporting year.

The annual review will balance emerging policy needs with the need to manage the overheads on social housing providers. It aims to:

- Ensure that existing questions are still relevant to current requirements;
- Amend questions where clarity is required by those providing the data;
- Amend the guidance where clarity could be improved;
- Seek proposals from stakeholders to remove questions that are no longer required for their work area;
- Check consistency against other data sources; and
- Seek proposals for any necessary changes arising from new policy.

Policy makers and practitioners regard the system as an essential tool for monitoring housing costs, assessing affordability and developing policy. The data provides an invaluable source of information about lettings and sales, and households and tenants; including information on economic status, income, ethnicity, primary reason for housing, source of referral, previous tenure of occupant and types of low cost home ownership sales.

If you would like to submit a proposal for change, please complete and submit the following form to CORE@communities.gov.uk by 16 October 2020. One form should be completed for each proposed alteration.

Please note that proposals must meet at least one of the following criteria:

1. Policy requirements where there is a clear need for data to inform specific policy areas, and where CORE is deemed to be the most appropriate collection method;
2. Operational changes where there is a clear need for data on newly introduced or amended housing products or tenancies available, and where CORE is deemed to be the most appropriate collection method;
3. Deletion of fields or reduction in information required;
4. Data consistency across social housing datasets (e.g. to make definitions consistent);
5. Data consistency with other national data standards (e.g. the Census);
6. Rationalisation of data collected across different systems.

Any changes may have a significant cost attached to them. Please consider the relative importance of your proposal against any impacts, consider how critical the change is, what benefits it will bring, and whether CORE is the right place to collect the information required, as outlined in the change request form.
